As I write this article we currently have over 80 children on our church campus participating in Camp Harlem. I also learned this morning that of the 110 children that registered for Camp Harlem around 60 of them have not previously participated in any children's activity at HBC. I do not know how many of these 60 children are active in another church. I suspect however, that a number of them probably are not. So let's pause for a moment and consider the reach that this new event is already having amongst the families in our community. I want to encourage you to pray now for the families of all of these participating children. Join me in praying that the face of Christ will shine through HBC this week. Pray that seeds are being planted in these families. Pray that this event will have eternal impacts.

As we consider the reach of this event and the many volunteers that are needed to help make this event happen it seems appropriate to make you all aware of some of the work that our nominating committee is about to begin. If you are not aware, each summer our nominating committee and staff work together to fill vacancies on our ministry teams and committee's for the upcoming church year. I suspect many, if not most of those who read this will be asked to serve in some capacity. I hope that you all will spend some time praying about how and where you might serve in the upcoming church year.

If the response to Camp Harlem has taught us anything, it is that Jesus' words in Matthew nine are true. In that passage Jesus says to his disciples "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field" (Mt. 9:37-38, NIV). The potential for harvest in and around Harlem is large and I believe it is growing. Camp Harlem is not the only area of family ministry with a large number of participants. This past school year it was not uncommon for us to have 70-80 children and youth on our campus on any given Wednesday night. On Sunday mornings we average around 35 children from infant to 5th grade in our nursery and Blast children's worship. Friends, we cannot miss the reality that the "harvest is plentiful." The Lord has given us great opportunity. But, without your willingness to serve we cannot reap a harvest. God has placed this opportunity before each of us. I pray that we are all willing to answer this call!

Press on!

Join us next Wednesday night after Oasis as we have our first Worship Workshop! Everyone is invited, especially if you are involved in our praise teams, band, and choir. We will enjoy a fun time of singing and learning a few new worship songs, as well as reviewing songs that we've recently started doing on Sunday mornings. It's going to be a lot of fun!

Deacon Nominations

Deacon Nomination forms will be available in the Welcome Center on June 4th and will need to be turned in at the church office by June 25th.

Nominating Committee

Our nominating committee will work throughout the summer to fill ministry team and committee vacancies. Please prayerfully consider where you will serve for the upcoming church year.

"For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."

Ephesians 2:10, NIV

Harlem Baptist

First, thank you!!

Yesterday we finished the first day of Camp Harlem, and it was awesome! We have had around 110 children register for camp for the week. On Day 1, we had around 80 children show up. It was a lot. And kinda overwhelming. But it went off without a hitch. All the kids had so much fun cooking and crafting and playing dodgeball and even doing a Ninja Warrior Obstacle Course.

Thanks to a whole heap of you who are serving as volunteers, making this week possible. Together, we are better, and we are able to make a maximized impact if we work together as one body towards a common goal. Today was a beautiful illustration of just such a process playing out on the field before my eyes. Thanks also for those who gave generously of your resources so as to make sure Camp Harlem has everything it needs to function. And finally, thanks to many more of you who have been praying us through the preparation process and are continuing to pray for us to make a difference in the community.

Second, please continue to pray for me and Katie as we are now exactly two weeks away from getting on a plan headed to Uganda in Africa. Katie's sister is a missionary there and we are going to be gone for two weeks for her wedding. The farthest I have ever been from home is Canada so... I'm pretty anxious about such a big trip. Please pray for our safety as we travel and that the wedding would be an awesome, memorable moment for all of Katie's family.

Third (and last), just wanted to share a quick Bible verse that has been on my mind a lot the past few weeks...

"For He chose us in Him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love, He predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will." - Ephesians 1:4-5
